

Join The Coal Preparation Society of America When It Returns to Its Most Popular Venue at

The Woodford Reserve Distillery

Join CPSA in 2018 for an evening of fine dining and entertainment when it returns to Lexington for its annual member get-together. The event will coincide with the 2018 CoalProTec Conference and Exhibit!

The historic Woodford Reserve Distillery is a national landmark with a reputation for crafting the world's finest premium bourbon. The distillery is renowned for its cuisine, hospitality and natural beauty of the Kentucky Bluegrass region.

Transportation will be provided from the Lexington Center to the distillery where members will be treated to an evening of bourbon tasting, fine dining, and entertainment by comedian Rik Roberts whose 100% clean comedy show engages audiences with original comedy songs!

Itinerary

When: Tuesday April 24, 2018

Location: The Woodford Reserve Distillery, Versailles, KY

Transportation is Provided

6:00 p.m. Buses depart the Lexington Center for the Distillery

6:30 p.m. Distillery tours, cocktails and hors d'oeuvres.

7:30 p.m. Dinner followed by entertainment

9:30 p.m. Buses depart the distillery for the Lexington Center.

Tickets

Tickets for this year's event are $99 per person or $594 for a table of 6 and are available to CPSA Members only. For $400, organizations can help sponsor the event and have their logos prominently displayed.

This event is limited so reserve your tickets right away by registering online at www.coalprepsociety.org

Or contact Kathryn Dew at coalprotec2018@gmail.com